This decision was rather arbitrary, as ultimately I think they're pretty much equivalent. From the research I did they have the same RPPM of 2, and while Windsong gives less secondary stat than Jade Spirit gives INT, Windsong has the potential to give you or three buffs at the same time (the stat chosen is random). Since main stat is the best for nearly every class, I recommend Jade Spirit. All that being said, both these enchants stop scaling at level 90, while the WoD enchantments give a giant chunk of secondary stat and scale to 100, so depending on price you might want to use the WoD version. Not trying to go over the top, but I was setting up to level my vulpera rogue up on patch day. Was trying to figure out ahead of time what the best enchants would be. I think mark of the Satyr is still good for neck, but for weapons I am getting mixed results. Tried a google search and got about 20 different answers. I think Elemental Force and dancing steel are two I saw the most, but thought I'd ask here before I dropped the gold. Edit: probably going to level Assassin, even tho outlaw probably better, just like it more If that helps Here's my set-up for alts: Neck: Mark of the Hidden Satyr Shoulder: (Greater) Tiger Claw Inscription Back: Gift of Critical Strike Chest: Peerless Stats Pants: Ironhide (just because I love stamina, but you can get any of the agility/Crit ones) Weapons: Elemental Force x2 2 Likes Not trying hijack the thread but... How much of a difference does enchanting make on leveling? Is it a night and day difference or just a good idea if you have gold to throw away. The neck enchant is night and day difference alone. But expensive (around 4-6k) Add the weapon enchants, which go for about 100g a pop? Mobs literally die in auto attacks for 3 seconds. and low level pvp is insanely funny watching people just melt and probably raging. 1 Like yeah, I have had a set of two handed weapons with crusader, been leveling warriors to unlock all my heritage armor sets. Can basically solo dungeons and when I did Koraks revenge I would melt even 120s. it's pretty crazy how strong they can be. Sorry for digging this relic up but anything interesting with the latest weapon enchants? Not just thinking of the rogue but overall. 2 Likes Last updated on Dec 12, 2020 at 09:36 by Azorharon 10 comments This page lists the changes to heirlooms in the Shadowlands expansion, as well as where you can find all of the heirloom vendors for both Alliance and Horde players. Need any help? Check out our General Discussion Forum! 10 comments Didn't see anything like this around here, so I though I'd put up a list of the best enchants available for the BoA heirloom items. Note that these may be quite expensive, as most of them require pre-BC reputation. Any Shoulders: Greater Inscription of the Gladiator - Item - World of Warcraft - yes, there have been many threads about it, and up to this point, it still works. Balanced Heartseeker - Item - World of Warcraft .An obvious choice for rogues, and as such the best option available to enchant this weapon is Formula: Enchant Weapon - Agility - Item - World of Warcraft . This recipe is available from Timbermaw at Honored reputation. Bloodied Arcanite Reaper - Item - World of Warcraft : This item has carnage written all over it. You can either go with Formula: Enchant Weapon - Crusader - Item - World of Warcraft if you want massive procs or with Formula: Enchant 2H Weapon - Agility - Item - World of Warcraft , a whopping constant 25 Agility buff. The Crusader recipe can only be obtained through drops, while the Agility one is available from Timbermaw at Friendly reputation. Devout Aurastone Hammer - Item - World of Warcraft as well as Dignified Headmaster's Charge - Item - World of Warcraft : Formula: Enchant Weapon - Spell Power - Item - World of Warcraft is the obvious choice, with Formula: Enchant Weapon - Healing Power - Item - World of Warcraft giving 1 point less - regardless, both are zone drops from Molten Core. Also, there is the option of getting Formula: Enchant Weapon - Mighty Intellect - Item - World of Warcraft , available at Revered reputation with Thorium Brotherhood. And finally, Venerable Dal'Rend's Sacred Charge - Item - World of Warcraft : You can either go with Formula: Enchant Weapon - Agility - Item - World of Warcraft, available from Timbermaw at Honored reputation, or Formula: Enchant Weapon - Strength - Item - World of Warcraft , available at Friendly reputation with Thorium Brotherhood. The Thorium Brotherhood reputation enchants can be bought from Lokhtos Darkbargainer, the vendor in Blackrock Depths, while the Timbermaw reputation formulas are available from Meilosh, in the passage connecting Felwood, Winterspring and Moonglade.
